

PREPARATIONS FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

397

for making breakfast in the carriage, a gold case for Napoleon's gold wash-hand basin, a number of essence bottles, and a variety of minute articles, such as needles and thread.

" At the bottom of this toilet-box, in a recess, were found, in 1815, 2000 gold Napoleons — on the top of it were writing-materials, a liquor-case, a wardrobe, writing-desk, maps, telescopes, pistols, etc., a large silver chronometer, by which the watches of the army were regulated, two merino mattresses, a travelling-cap, a sword, a uniform, and an imperial mantle and headdress" (p. 18).